105 Years Old.

Aunt Lucy Gossett, an old colored woman in this city, is able to trace her age to 105 years. She was brought here from Augusta, Georgia, at the age of 24 years, and has lived in this city from that day to this. She is now making a new quilt, cutting her own pieces and threading her needle without the use of glasses.

The old colored woman is of the opinion that she is 115 years old, but can not trace her age back further than 105 years. Her mind is clear and she has none of the organic weaknesses which usually comes with old age.

The administrator of John Fox, a brakeman of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, who was killed at Rowland, Ky., has been awarded a judgment against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company for $10,000 damages.

Fulton Gordon, who was tried last week before Judge Thompson in Louisville for the killing of Nixon Brown and his (Gordon's) wife, has been acquitted.

Don M. Dickerson will not succeed Secretary of State Gresham unless the latter's bad health should compel him to resign.

A five dollar frame carbon at Bryan's for two dollars. Good to July 1st.

Horrible.

At Salyersville on last Friday two children of Wesley Row, a daughter aged sixteen years, and son aged six, tried to start a fire by pouring powder on a small coal from a horn containing a pound and a half of powder. The horn was exploded, tearing off one arm of the girl and burning her hair and clothing off. The horn struck the boy in the face, putting out both eyes and burning off his hair and clothing also. They will both die.

Mr. E. B. Busby, baker and confectioner on South Maysville street, died on last Saturday morning from brain trouble. Mr. Busby was an active, hard-working man and had built up a good business. His remains were taken to Lancaster Monday for burial. He leaves a wife and three children who were dependent on him.

The State Conference of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will convene with the Methodist Church, this city, June 7, 8, 9. Arrangements are being perfected to entertain all the delegates and visitors who may attend.

Rev. J. G. Eubanks, pastor of the Old School Baptist flock of this city, preached at the residence of R. M. Burbridge on Sunday evening. Mr. Eubanks, as usual, preached a most excellent sermon.

Mr. J. Green Trimble returned from a business to Memphis, Tenn. on Thursday evening, where he had gone to locate his son, J. Green, Jr., in the wholesale Brokerage and Commission business. This he succeeded in doing to his satisfaction. The style of the firm is Hunter, Trimble & Co. Mr. Trimble reports business looking up along all the lines in that section. In fact the outlook is exceedingly encouraging. Emigrants are coming in large numbers from Iowa, Wisconsin and other northwestern States to look at the lands of the South, and many are buying homes and paying the cash for them. His brother, Mr. Frank Trimble is extensively engaged in the real estate business and in this way Mr. J. Green Trimble was furnished an admirable opportunity to see what was going on in this line.

On Wednesday, June 5th, at the Baptist church, Rev. Everette Gill officiating, Dr. W. R. Thompson will be married to Miss Fannie Powers Reed. After the ceremony Dr. Thompson and wife will leave on the C. & O. West train for Mr. Malcolm Thompson's, Dr. Thompson's father in Scott county, where they will remain a week after which they will return to this city.

The Chicago branch of American Railway Union has taken hand in the strike of the employees of the Illinois Steel Company. It demands an eight-hour day and an increase of fifty cents a day in wages.

I. N. Phipps has gone to the mountains in the interest of his book of poems now being published by Jno. P. Martin & Co., and we bespeak for him quite a large subscription, as he is a native of Morgan county, and a great favorite of the people of his native heath. At all events he should receive as many subscribers in Morgan as he got here in Mt. Sterling alone, which was about two hundred, and that without ever canvassing a solitary ward, a fact which we think speaks well for his popularity with our people. Let us see now if Morgan, his native county, will do as well by him as has Montgomery, his adopted county.

Mr. C. Cyrus Turner and Miss Jessie, daughter of Jas. D. Hazelrigg, will be married in the Christian church in this city on Tuesday, June 4th. Mr. Turner and wife will reside in Frankfort, where Mr. Turner is tipstaff of the Court of Appeals.

Bath Circuit Court convened on last Monday. There is a small docket. The case of M. F. Fouch for the killing of George Johnson in Rowan county which is before the Bath Circuit Court on a change of venue, will in all probability be tried.

Nicaragua has raised by popular subscription the $75,000 due to Great Britain. Raising the money has increased the bitter feeling in Nicaragua against the British, and a boycott of British goods by Central American States is threatened.

There was the largest attendance at the First Presbyterian Sunday School last Sabbath that there has been for a year, and the review of the lesson by Superintendent Chiles was excellent. He is doing his best to make the Sunday School both interesting and profitable. There were good congregations at both the morning and evening services, the pastor preaching two earnest sermons. The attendance at this church has been increasing for the past year.

The cut worms are taking advantage of the cool weather to get in their work on the young corn. They are not neglecting the tobacco plant beds either, but are doing much damage among the growing plants. Whole fields of corn will have to be replanted entire in some sections. Those who have not examined their tobacco beds would better do so at once.

Dr. Ed Dean will be married on the 29th inst. to Miss Emma Dunn, of South Bend, Ind. Dr. Dean is one of the leading physicians of this county with a large practice, and Miss Dunn is one of the loveliest of women. We are glad to extend congratulations.

Rev. Everette Gill will return from Washington, D. C. this week and will occupy his pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

Steering rates on ocean steamers between New York and Europe have been advanced from $10 to $15.

Hard News.

Mr. W. S. Cockrell, trustee of the jury fund, desires us to notify the members of the grand and petit juries of the last term of the Montgomery Circuit Court that he is in receipt of information from Auditor Norman to the effect that there is no money on hand to pay such claims against the State and he cannot say when there will be.

Mr. James R. Turtle, of Versailles, and Miss Willie Graves, daughter of Robert Graves, of Lexington, were married on last Wednesday and passed through here the same day en route for Virginia, where they will spend several days. Miss Graves is well known here where she has relatives.

Mrs. Fenton Bean Bigstaff, of Flat Creek, aged 92 years is a remarkable woman for one of her age. She is enjoying excellent health and her mind is unclouded and she is as bright as a new dollar.

The cut worm continues to get in his work on the growing crops.

Fine Colts.

Should any one want to see some fine lookers by Knighthood, let them go to J. M. Bigstaff, W. W. Thompson, John Wilson and any others that have foals by this horse. They are all fine and very much alike. All these men are sending back to him from three to six mares each.

Mrs. Josie Peel died at her home in Clark county on last Saturday aged about 35 years. The funeral was preached Sunday by Elder H. D. Clark, of this city. Mrs. Peel will be remembered as Miss Josie Bailey. She was one of the purest and best women of our knowledge, was an active, working member of the Baptist church, and in all her life work she went about scattering seeds of kindness. Her taking off will be a heavy loss to her family and circle of friends.

Miss Annie Kelly gave a hop to her pupils at the old Y. M. C. A. Rooms last Thursday evening. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Special.

For the especial accommodation of ladies without escorts, arrangements have been made to sell tickets at Lloyd's drugstore for the Great Wallace Show during the day of exhibition, Friday, May 17.

Mr. J. D. Wilson was in our office Thursday exhibiting a bunch of alfalfa to some gentlemen. Mr. Wilson said he had failed to induce stock here to eat it. He had gone to livery stables when the horses were being fed on dry food, but had failed to get them to take hold of it. Naturally he does not think much of it as a food for stock.

As a result of meetings held at Huntington, West Va., by Rev. Schoolfield, all places of business have been closed on Sunday. The Mayor issued an order forbidding the sale of the Sunday newspaper.

The jury in the case of Mm. Shipp at Lexington, charged with the murder of Sam Brown, brought in a verdict of acquittal.

Jack, the Great Frost King.

The Weather Bureau in a report on the frost of Sunday night says the frost area was unusually extensive and severe for this time of the year, it having occurred in all of the fifteen States for which it was forecasted Saturday, killing fruit and crops.

The Democrats of Montgomery county will meet in mass convention at the Court House in Mt. Sterling on Saturday, June 1, 1895, at two o'clock p. m., to select delegates to the District Convention which meets at Winchester, Ky., on June 7, 1895, to nominate a candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the Third District.

H. R. FRENCH, Chairman.

On Saturday, June 1st the Democrats of this county will meet at the Court-house to select delegates to attend the convention, which meets at Winchester June 7th to select a candidate for Railroad Commissioner. Let us bury all differences and have an old time Democratic love feast.

Notice.

All parties indebted to me individually, or to the firm of Taulbee & Haydon, must make full settlement by the first day of June, or we will sue, sell to collectors, any way to realize.

R. H. HAYDON.

The Southern Baptist Convention may hold its meeting in 1896 at Louisville. All of the churches of that city have united in extending an invitation, and it is more than likely it will be accepted.

Mrs. James Price, of Rush, Ky., is in jail at Ashland, charged with the murder of an eight-year-old adopted child. Mr. Price will probably be arrested for complicity.
